

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Integrated Waste Management Disaster Plan is the result of cooperative efforts with local governments and state and federal agencies. Throughout the development of the Plan, the following individuals have shared their expertise and provided guidance to ensure that the Plan addresses debris management issues that California communities may face after a disaster.

Following are the local government officials deserving special recognition for giving generously of their time and advice throughout the development of the Plan and in sharing reports which form the foundation of this Plan.

Liz Citrino, Humboldt County	Kelly Ingalls, City of Los Angeles
Michael Cockerell, San Joaquin Co.	Hazel Joanes, City of Santa Clarita
J. Edwards and Associates	Henry Renteria, City of Oakland, OES
Janet Ervin, City of Los Angeles	Andres Santamaria, City of Los Angeles
Cliff Feldman, City of Oakland	Harry Schrauth, City of Oakland
Ellen Hae, Recycling by Nature	Louis Utsumi, City of Los Angeles
Suzanne Hart, City of San Francisco

Staff from the Governor's Office of Emergency Services were also instrumental in providing technical expertise and information relative to the emergency response process, and deserve special mention for their efforts in guiding the development of the Plan.

Linda Constantine	Vince Montane
Tina Curry	Don Pinegar
Steven DeMello	Carlos Rodriguez
Chris Marxen	Rebecca Wagoner

Following are the CIWMB staff deserving recognition for their assistance and guidance throughout the development of the Integrated Waste Management Disaster Plan.

Principal Author: Sharron Leason

Contributing Authors:	Relly Briones	Scott McFarland
	Nancy Carroll	Susan O'Leary
	Mark Fong	Casey Robb

Other Contributors:	Chris Deidrick	David Otsubo
	Lloyd Dillon	Marge Rouch
	Byron Fitzgerald	Chris Schmidle
	Wes Mindermann	Kathleen Stycket
	Michael Wochncik	Lorraine Van Kekerix
	Gary Arstein-Kerslake	